

- MISSION THREE - FAMILY JOKE CHALLENGE

YOUR DETAILS:

Did you know that laughing is good for you? It's true! Laughter releases endorphins, flooding your body with happy feelings and lowering stress levels. It may even strengthen your immune system and build stronger relationships and connections with the people you love.

It seems weird to think about scheduling time to laugh, but it could be a lot of fun!

YOUR MISSION:

Take turns telling each other jokes. Try NOT to laugh, though. Can you do it? Challenge each of your family members to keep telling jokes until someone laughs -- the first one to laugh loses. I've started you with some jokes to print, but you can grab a joke book or search for kids' jokes online. Let the laughs begin!
